

It would be a mistake to allow cell phone useage during airline flights. These flights are already too stressful to the travelers without the added burden of loud cell phone users around everyone. Please do not allow cell phones to be used during flights.